7:10 Betty Miller called the meeting to order.

Betty turned the meeting over to the Nominating Committee: Heather Richardson, Alice Jackson and Allison Esrig.

Heather asked for floor nominations.

No floor nominations were received.

Heather called for votes for the uncontested positions. By a show of hands, there was a clear majority to elect the incumbents for these positions.

Heather called for a vote for the contested Elkhorn Member At Large position. The incumbent for this position was Carol Cannon. The challenger was Patrick Monahan.

Voting was by anonymous ballot. Attendees voted via the poll feature on Zoom or sent their vote directly to Alice through the chat feature.

While Alice tallied the votes, Allison thanked the Nominating Committee members for their hard work. She also thanked those who ran for a position and pointed out that everyone's participation is needed as part of the community, even if they do not serve in an elected position.

Alice declared Carol Cannon as the winner of the contested election by a majority vote. She remains in the role of Member At- Large at Elkhorn.

The elected board for 2022 is:
